The Void

I co-create in the void also called akasha or ether, the void is called the spaceless space. It is the blank canvas of creation. It is the stillness that supports the active creation. The void is where my Higher Self overlights me. Presence, Beingness, is all centered in the void.

To enter the void or the spaceless space I use the breath as the gateway. The breath is a physical representation of the space between. Also removing outer movement (being still) in meditation can access the void. From the void flows the insight (wisdom). The void also fills my cup with love (self compassion) so I can share it with others (compassionate service). The void is where I recharge, accessed through the breath and still meditation. The void is my access point to my Higher Self, and from there my Higher Self flows into the outer world of creation.
